Statutory Consultation on Admissions Arrangements

Dear Colleagues,

I am writing to inform you of the statutory consultation on the admissions arrangements for Wright Robinson College for the September 2028 intake. In accordance with section 1.45-1.48 of the DfE School Admission Code the Governing Body of Wright Robinson are required to consult on the college admission arrangements once every 7 years, even where no changes to the arrangements have been proposed during that period.

In accordance with the School Admissions Code, the consultation will run for six weeks, from 12 October 2026 to 23 November 2026. During this period, all interested parties are invited to review the College's admissions arrangements and submit any comments or representations.

A copy of the College's Admissions Policy for 2028 is attached for reference.

Proposed Changes

There are no proposed changes to Wright Robinson College's oversubscription criteria for the September 2028 intake. The existing criteria will remain unchanged.

The consultation provides an opportunity for interested parties to review the proposed admissions arrangements and share any feedback.
